

Meet the Coaching Staff

Amy Coulter joined St. Edward's as an assistant softball coach in 2001 and was named head coach one year later. In 2007, she led the Hilltoppers to the second-straight Heartland Conference championship along with an appearance in the NCAA regional tournament. In 2008, the Hilltoppers captured the South Central Regional title and won its first two games of the NCAA national tournament before falling in extra innings to Emporia State University in the semifinals. The team finished the season tied for third in the nation with a 53-17 overall record. Coulter was also named the 2008 NFCA/NCAA Division II Regional Coach of the Year.

Assistant Coach Jessica Rogers was a four-year letter winner at UT-San Antonio from 2003 to 2007. She also served as volunteer assistant coach for the Roadrunners in 2008. She was named first-team all-conference all four seasons and was named Southland Conference Player and Hitter of the Year in 2005. Rogers was an academic all-American, Southland Conference Student-Athlete of the Year and UT-San Antonio Student-Athlete of the Year. Prior to joining St. Edward's in 2008, she coached the San Antonio Gator Girls in the Girl's Fastpitch League in San Antonio.
